

You are all invited!!!!

To a Special Port St. Lucie Historical Society Gathering

Join us as we reunite with Nina Baranski, author of Port St. Lucie at 50
A City For All People
for a Wine and Cheese Social (and a little beer.)

Come by and say “hi” to Nina. Bring your friends. It will be a wonderful opportunity to hear about stories of our earlier years. Nina will speak about her memories of Port St. Lucie and writing the city’s history book for our 50th Anniversary. We will also have some great wines and cheeses for your enjoyment.

History books will be available for purchase and Nina will be happy to personalize them for you. They make great gifts. Discounts for multiple copies. $10.00 with a new membership.

Saturday, May 26 from 4 to 6 PM

Rick’s Diner
10106 South Federal Highway, PSL

This event is open to the public. Bring family and friends.

RSVP required by May 24. Email: pchristensen@summit21.biz
Cost: $15.00 per person
